

Dr Alex Goody BSc (Hons), MSc, DClin Psy, C. Psychol, SCR.N, RAPP.S.
Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist

Email: info@cheviotneuropsychology.co.uk

Tel: 07961 431 528

PERSONAL STATEMENT:

I am a Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist. I retired in 2021 after a 32 year career in the NHS.

In the independent sector I have provided expert reports for the courts since 1993.

My area of expertise is adult neurological illness and injury in the context of Personal Injury claims, medical negligence, forensic cases, and family proceedings.

I am instructed by both Claimant and Defendant lawyers in the ratio of approximately 60:40.

To date, I have provided oral evidence to the Court on three occasions.

QUALIFICATIONS:

BSc (Hons) Psychology
MSc Clinical Psychology
DPsy Clinical Psychology
PG Certificate in Cognitive and Behavioural Therapy
Full Practitioner member of Division of Neuropsychology

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC) registered Practitioner Psychologist and Clinical Psychologist: PYL06469.

Chartered Psychologist of British Psychological Society (BPS: 085603).

Entry on the Specialist Register of Clinical Neuropsychologists (SRCN) of the British Psychological Society.

Entry on Register of Applied Psychology Practice Supervisors (RAPP.S).

EXPERIENCE:

I qualified as a clinical psychologist in 1992.

May 2021 to date. Honorary Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist

Following retirement from my NHS post, I currently provide support to research activities provided by Neuropsychology staff at Walkergate Park.

2009 – May 2021. Cumbria, Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Mental Health Trust.

Professional Lead for Neuropsychology services based at Walkergate Park, the Centre for Neurorehabilitation and Neuropsychiatry. The post also provided leadership to associated community services. The neuropsychology service supports approximately 11 staff including qualified Neuropsychologists, Clinical Psychologists and Assistant Psychologists. Services covered are broad and varied, encompassing slow stream neurorehabilitation, neurobehavioural services, neuropsychiatry, community acquired brain injury services and neuropsychology services to secondary mental health care. Services are provided on an inpatient and outpatient basis.

2005 - May 2021. Cumbria, Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Mental Health Trust.

Clinical work provided to Regional Neuropsychiatry Service with clients with a wide range of neurological conditions who present with neuropsychiatric symptoms.

1994- 2009. Northumberland District Psychology Service/ Northgate and Prudhoe

NHS Trust/ Newcastle, North Tyneside, Northumberland Mental Health Trust Provided clinical service to the Northumberland Head Injuries Service This is a community service and I worked extensively with brain injured clients who presented with cognitive, emotional and behavioural disorders. In addition, I provided clinical neuropsychology services to secondary mental health services. Led on developing neuropsychology and psychological care part of stroke services pathway. Led on developing neuropsychological assessments and interventions into community neurological populations within Northumberland Locality.

1992-4 Northumberland District Psychology Service

Clinical Psychologist split post with 80% time in adult mental health services and also 20% of time into a community learning disability team.

Professional

I am an examiner for the British Psychological Society's Qualification in Clinical Neuropsychology.

March 2025